

FEAR A NEW WAR: ASK U. S. TO INTERVENE

Chicago Players Double Crossed Gamblers, Claims Burns On Stand

DISSATISFACTION CAME WHEN PROMISED MONEY FAILED TO MATERIALIZE

CHICAGO, July 20.—The indicted Chicago White Sox players, after agreeing with a clique of gamblers to throw the 1919 world's series to Cincinnati for one hundred thousand dollars, became sick of the deal when they were not paid the bribes promised and at a meeting before the third game decided to play their best and win the series. Bill Burns, accomplice in the alleged deal and the state's star witness, testified today in the baseball trial.

Urged by the alleged "fixers" to win the third game to improve the betting odds, the players said they had lost for two regular pitchers—Cicotte and Williams—and would not win for a "busher," Dick Kerr, Burns said. Then, feeling they had been crossed by the gamblers, they double-crossed their bribers by telling them they would lose the third game, but instead won it three to nothing, with Kerr pitching.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS UNION STAGES PAGEANT IN LONDON

Group of girls from the Hempstead Garden suburb of London who took part in the pageant of nations. The League of Nations Union recently held a great pageant in Hyde Park, London. School children from London and vicinity as well as society debutantes took part in the parade. Some of the banners they are carrying read: "Peace," "No War," and "We Reveal in Peace."

SILESIAN SITUATION CAUSE OF ANXIETY TO OUR EUROPEAN ALLIES

LONDON, July 20.—It was stated in authoritative quarters today that informal suggestions have been made for American intervention in the Upper Silesian trouble, which, it is feared, will threaten open hostilities.

The American government's policy with respect to the Silesian and similar disputes concerning the fixation of boundaries, it is pointed out, has been one of non-intervention unless the situation was held to be such as to threaten an outbreak of hostilities. It is understood now that representations are being made from certain quarters interested in the Silesian situation that such a break is an immediate possibility.

Had $200,000 To Bet On Series

Attempts of the state to have Burns tell of a conversation with Eddie Cicotte in New York, where the state claims the alleged conspiracy was formed, failed when Judge Friend sustained a defense objection.

George Gorman, assistant state's attorney, resuming his questions, concerning meetings in Cincinnati hotels, when Burns took the stand, asked: "When you were in Room 708 of the Hotel Sinton the day of the second game, what happened?"

"Attell and several others were there," answered Burns. "Attell said that he had two hundred thousand dollars to bet on the series, but it was hard to get, but down and he did not want to give me any money. I insisted on at least ten thousand dollars. Attell showed me piles of money under a mattress. Forty thousand dollars was due the players then." (Continued on Page Eight)

LLOYD GEORGE TO ATTEND

"Medicinal" Beer Soon Unless Senate Acts

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 20.—Regulations covering the use of beer and wine for medicinal purposes will be signed within a few days, unless prohibitory action is taken by congress, Commissioner Blair announced today. The final draft of the regulations is on his desk awaiting signature. Action has been deferred for months, he said, upon assurance of senate leaders that congress would quickly determine its attitude toward medicinal beer, but with the postponing of prohibition legislation in the senate to facilitate passage of farm measures, apparently further delay was in prospect.

GRANTED CERTIFICATES

CEDAR POINT—The Ohio State Board of Pharmacy granted certificates to 75 applicants who recently took the state examinations and granted 81 assistant pharmacist certificates.

Negro Masons Are Given A Fifty-Fifty Decision

COLUMBUS, O., July 20.—Litigation of years standing affecting the two Ohio negro Masonic organizations was ended here today by Common Pleas Judge Duncan, who refused to take any rights or privileges from either, leaving both sides to the controversy just where he found them.

He denied to each an injunction against the other, which would have prohibited the use of the word "Masons" and "free and accepted Masons." He granted a temporary order restraining either from interfering with the property or activities of the other.

In leaving the controversy unsettled, Judge Duncan said both sides have been in existence so long, and have acquired so many rights that a court of equity will not at this late date interfere with either.

ly determine its attitude toward medicinal beer, but with the postponing of prohibition legislation in the senate to facilitate passage of farm measures, apparently further delay was in prospect.

Unless definite assurance of congressional action could be received within a day or two, the commissioner said, it would be the duty of the bureau to promulgate the regulations.

Cost Of Sodas Under 8 Cents?

NEW YORK, July 20.—The cost of production of ice cream soda is 7 1/2 cents a glass, a prominent pharmacy stated today in announcing that it could make a reasonable profit by charging the customer ten cents. The cost is divided as follows:

Syrup, 1 cent; milk, 1 cent; ice cream, 2 cents; labor, breakage, waste, etc., 3 1/2 cents.

Most prices in New York are fifteen cents and up, plus war tax.

Craig And DeValera May Soon Meet In Compromise Effort

LONDON, July 20.—The probability of a meeting in Belfast between Eamon DeValera and Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, is foreshadowed in some political quarters and several newspapers this morning.

General Smuts, premier of South Africa, who re-entered the negotiations yesterday, doubtless is largely responsible for this, and similar optimistic speculation has survived under great difficulties since Monday, when the Ulster premier departed suddenly for Belfast after making a forceful statement on the subject of self-determination as it applied to Ulster.

This seemed for a time to end all (Continued on Page 8)

Twins Missing

NEW YORK, July 20.—Search was started today by the police for Charles and Laetitia Leary, 26 year old twins and cousins of the late Theodore Roosevelt, at the request of their brother, Reginald Roosevelt Leary. The twins have been missing from their home since Monday morning.

Reginald said that after an unsatisfactory discussion of a business venture at their Wall Street office his brothers said they thought of shipping as seamen on a transatlantic vessel or might go to California.

$50,000 MAN IS STILL MISSING

SHARON, PA., July 20.—Authorities of western Pennsylvania today were searching for Thomas D. Randolph, business man of Sharon, alleged to have been abducted Monday night and held for fifty thousand dollars ransom by kidnappers. Randolph is said to have asked his wife and father, E. V. Randolph, of Sharon, to obtain the ransom, in a note addressed to his wife at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Fogel, Sharon.

Police said today that Randolph, accompanied by a man and a woman, had left Franklin after he had called his wife on a telephone this morning and said that he was going to Erie, Pa., where he would board a steamer for Cleveland.

Randolph was to pass through Oil City and Erie in the automobile, but at daylight this morning the car had not been seen.

Mrs. Randolph denied today that she had spoken to her husband from Franklin or that Oil City and Erie police had been warned that her husband was at large.

Record Engine Will Make Old Run

NEW YORK, July 20.—Traveling swiftly and alone, the old New York Central engine No. 999, proud holder of a record of 112.5 miles an hour, which has not been equalled in 28 years, reached New York today from the railroad shops at Aris, Pa., where she has been refurbished in her original colors for a run to Chicago with the famous old Dewitt Clinton train.

The Dewitt Clinton train, which is to make the trip in state on flat cars, will be exhibited at the pageant of progress, beginning July 30, as the pioneer American steam passenger train.

Old 999, erstwhile pride of the Central, was called in from a prosaic daily run through the Beech Creek coal mining district of Pennsylvania to be refitted for the cross-country run. After the exhibition is over, she will return to her humble tasks.

But during her trip to Chicago she will be her old self. Charles Hogan, of Buffalo, who drove the high-wheeled, mud built marvel in her record-breaking trip on May 10, 1893, will be at the throttle. The engine will look just as she did back in the nineties, even to the legend "Empire State Express" in gold script on her tender.

Accuse Ten Policemen Of Stealing Booze

CLEVELAND, O., July 20.—Warrants for ten Lakewood police officers, including the former chief, P. S. Christensen, and for six civilians, alleged to have been involved in a recent pilfering of confiscated whiskey taken from the seized Canadian launch, Transquillo, were being served this morning by U. S. Marshal Lapp and his deputies.

The warrants charge conspiracy under the Volstead prohibition act and were issued by U. S. Commissioner Wattersworth at the instance of the district attorney's office. Maximum penalty upon conviction carries with it a fine of ten thousand dollars and two years imprisonment.

Mrs. Kaber In Reformatory

CLEVELAND, O., July 20.—Eva Catherine Kaber was taken to the Women's Reformatory at Marysville, Ohio, this morning to begin serving a life sentence for the murder of her husband, Daniel F. Kaber, Lakewood publisher, two years ago, for which crime she was found guilty last Saturday.

The parting between Mrs. Kaber and her daughter, Marian McArdle, held in jail on a first degree murder charge in connection with the death of Mr. Kaber, her stepfather, was the most pathetic ever seen in the county jail, deputies said. Both were hysterically and whispered words of encouragement to each other after embracing for several minutes.

No Bar Yet On Immigration

NEW YORK, July 20.—The restrictive immigration law, which went into effect June 30, thus far has barred no new comers who have been able to reach these shores.

Officials of the Ellis Island immigration station said today that while European embarkation had been somewhat curtailed and there had been some delays in admission of immigrants, none had been turned back here because his country's quota had been filled. The only persons excluded have been those unable to meet the usual physical, mental and moral tests.

At present there is a surplus of only two nationalities, Greece and Palestine.

The Cincinnati Enquirer Tuesday said: J. A. Scheerer, Columbus, Ohio, Federal Prohibition Director for Ohio, was in Cincinnati yesterday looking after official matters. He reported the resignation from the service of J. L. Paris, Lynchburg, O. who, as his chief deputy, has been in charge of the Cincinnati district. Mr. Scheerer stated he will assign Inspector James A. Cahill, Chillicothe, to the Cincinnati district temporarily.

Mr. Cahill is well known here.

Robber Killed In Gun Duel

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 20.—Albert Wiles, of Youngstown, was killed by the sheriff of Portage county while he and three other men were engaged in robbing a country store at Richdown Center, four miles from Ravenna, early today, according to advices received here. Charles Worrell, Wiles' stepson, was captured, and two others escaped, but are believed to be in custody at Alliance, where two suspects were taken from a train.

Neighbors gave the alarm, and when the sheriff arrived Wiles opened fire, it is said, firing three shots. The sheriff's return fire killed him. The men had a truck loaded with goods from the store.

Worrell was taken to the Portage county jail at Ravenna. The same gang is said to have robbed the same store six weeks ago.

DAWES SAYS HE'LL SAVE HUGE SUM

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 20.—Possible economies in the various departments and independent government establishments can effect a saving in federal expenditures of $112,512,428 out of the appropriation of approximately $4,000,000,000 available for the current fiscal year, Director of the Budget Dawes estimates in a letter directed to President Harding. A sum of $22,823,113, pertaining to continuous appropriations for building and construction, which would be postponed for future expenditure, is included in the estimated possible savings. General Dawes said.

The estimate is based on a survey of possible economies undertaken by General Dawes as budget director several weeks ago, after calling a meeting of department heads and bureau chiefs at which they were directed to reduce expenditures wherever possible and adopt a policy of economy and efficiency.

Want Supreme Council To Meet At Once

The British government is urging the immediate convening of the supreme council to consider the complications caused by charges that the German protective organizations in Upper Silesia are still functioning, constituting a danger to allied authority which have been followed by demands, notably from France, that the allied forces there be increased. Such a measure, however, has been opposed by the French on the ground that they considered nothing would result from such a meeting in which case the situation would be rendered materially worse.

There seems good reason to believe that the menace to European peace which it is held the Silesia question presents, is the real cause for the postponement of further action on the Irish question and other matters of moment.

The Silesian question, it is stated, is causing grave anxiety to all the governments of Europe.

Important developments in this connection are expected within the next 48 hours.

Reinforcements Are Asked For

PARIS, July 20.—The British, Italian and French commissioners in Upper Silesia have sent in a report in which they jointly demand that reinforcements be sent to the allied troops of occupation, it was announced here this afternoon.

This recommendation came almost simultaneously with the receipt of a note by the French foreign office from the British government, in which Great Britain insisted there was no necessity for sending more troops into Upper Silesia. The note was in reply to the recent communication in which the French government notified Great Britain that reinforcements for the allied troops of occupation were needed urgently in order to make sure that the troops were not disturbed and to insure respect for the decisions of the allies under the treaty of Versailles.

M. Briand has not yet replied to the British note and it is likely will make known his final decision regarding the convening of the supreme council this afternoon. The council besides dealing with the Silesian question, probably will be occupied principally with the question of maintaining the penalties against Germany, continued occupation of Dueseldorf, Duisburg and Ruhrort and a few details concerning execution of the Versailles treaty.

JAPANESE TOLD TO "BEAT IT"

LOWER DISCOUNT RATE

BOSTON, July 20—A reduction in the discount rate of federal reserve banks in Boston, New York, Philadelphia and San Francisco to five and one half per cent was announced here today. The new rates are effective tomorrow, they having been approved by the federal reserve board.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., July 20.—Fifty-eight Japanese hired under contract to work on fruit and melon lands around Turlock, Stanislaus county, were placed early today on automobile trucks by white workers taken to Keyes, six miles north, and told to "leave the country," according to a dispatch to the San Francisco Call. The Japanese offered no resistance.

Two hundred and fifty additional Japanese workers were expected to arrive in Turlock today. The male Japanese who hold leases on lands, and the women and children were not molested.

The raid followed a similar incident near Livingston, Mercer county, last week, when Japanese workers were ordered out of the district.

TURLOCK, CAL., July 20.—A general exodus of Japanese field laborers and their families from this district is taking place today following the deportation to Keyes, five miles north, of fifty-eight Japanese male workers by members of a union of fruit and melon pickers, the authorities announced. The union is composed principally of white itinerants.

Presenting the charter to President Orla E. Hickey of the Portsmouth Club, he procured a small, toy steamship emblazoned with the name "Kiwanians." He had intended, he said, to launch the ship on this occasion with a bottle of champagne, but after witnessing the demonstration of the eagle eye of Portsmouth's prohibition enforcement officers, he felt safer in using some other liquid in the christening. He then produced a phial of Mary Garden perfume which he broke across the bows of the miniature ship, symbolizing the launching of the new club.

The Cincinnati club is the sponsor of the Portsmouth chapter. The visitors took a leading part in the entertainment, providing not only music but entertainers but speakers as well. They expressed their progressive membership of the Portsmouth club and the steps taken by the local organization.

The musical part of the program could not have been improved upon. Miss Irma Lindenmeyer and Clyde Knost rendered solo numbers and a duet number. W. G. Street, of Cincinnati gave the Kiwanis song which had been distributed to all members. Local President Orla E. Hickey, responded to Governor Clayton's presentation speech and was followed by a solo by L. S. Murdock, of Cincinnati. Clarence Pumphrey, president of the Cincinnati Club delivered a speech of appreciation, thanking the local Kiwanians for their splendid entertainment and adding words of praise for Portsmouth and her people. Music during the evening was furnished by Walter Davidson's orchestra.

The Queen City delegation here for the meeting included Lieutenant Governor Edmund C. Clayton, Past President of the Cincinnati Club, Clarence Pumphrey the present President; Matt Rosenstock, H. Ray Smith, Luke S. Murdock, William J. Street, W. G. Gustetter, Charlton A. Marshall, W. P. Schmick and Ernest R. Gwinn, secretary of the sponsoring organization.

The three humorous incidents of the evening that came as surprise features on the program was the arrest of Attorney Harry To Bannion on a warrant charging about everything possible. Sergeant Joe Bonzo made the arrest and searched the prisoner before the entire crowd, the search bringing to light a Bowie knife, a half grain cannon in the form of a 45 calibre revolver and a bottle of moonshine. To make sure the man had violated the strong drink law Mayor William Gableman, Safety Director S. Straus and Sergeant Bonzo sampled the hooch and pronounced it 100 per cent pure. On his promise to behave like a gentleman during the meeting he was released by Mayor Gableman.

The second feature of the surprise was a caustic verbal tie between J. B. Wiles and the local president. The former demanded a personal interview saying that he had been injured by remarks made by said President, member Wiles, declaring he wanted the trouble arrested then and there. Fellow members tried to smooth his ruffled feathers but he kept up a tirade of abuse that had left the members present believing he was in earnest.

Finally the argument dwindled to almost nothing, the members realizing then that the incident was only another of the special entertainment features.

J. Vaughn Finney and Dr. O. D. Tatje were the chief actors in the third scene. Mr. Finney at the conclusion of the banquet made a pessimistic address finding something wrong with everything in this life. He demonstrated his own willingness to end it all by rushing to the stage, Dr. Tatje rushed to the stage with a stretcher and a good sized dose of "unconscious" form from the stage. After announcing that it would take sometime for the dose to take effect, Dr. Tatje left the stage, which was again occupied by the "late" Mr. Finney who lost no time in giving another speech in which he told of the many fine things in this world, this address being much different from the previous speech filled with pessimistic ideas. This surprise proved to be one of the best features of the evening.

The banquet was served by the Parish Aid members of All Saints church and the decorating was charge of Miss Josephine Kinney.

When it seems almost impossible to remove the top of your fruit jar, hold the cover under hot running water for a few moments and you will be surprised how easily the lid will unscrew.

FRINGED SKIRT IS FALL SPORTS FAD

Great splashes of color in plain promise to be quite the mode this fall, especially for rugged sports wear. The fringed skirt which was seen in but a few instances in the spring is making a strong bid for fall. Here the fringed idea is carried out in the sweater also.

$50,000 Man Is Still Missing

SHARON, PA., July 20.—Police in practically every county of western Pennsylvania today continued their search for Thomas D. Randolph, the Sharon business man, who according to letters received here had been kidnapped and was being held for fifty thousand dollars ransom.

Randolph, the police declare, was in Franklin, Pa., early today, but from that time no trace of him has been found.

Samuel Lausdowne, Sharon chief of police, made the statement over the telephone from Franklin at noon today that he would arrest Randolph when he located him. No cause for the statement was assigned, but it was taken here to mean that the police had abandoned the kidnapping theory. Investigation this afternoon, the authorities said, was being carried on in the vicinity of Oil City Pa.

Coming of Age.
We mourn over the coming of age, but how many of us would really choose to remain young and so lose the treasures that the years bring; the varied friendships, the adventures, the garnered wisdom? Perpetual youth would leave us behind our own generation, would rob us of life's purpose and meaning.

Daily Thought.
Nature has presented us with a large faculty of entertaining ourselves alone, and often calls us to it, to teach us that we owe ourselves in part to society, but chiefly and mostly to ourselves.—Montaigne.

AIDS DE VALERA AT PEACE MEETING

The financial loss can not be estimated, says the advisers, which add that the conflagration dwarfs into insignificance the Pedro Del Llano disaster. Columns of fire hundreds of feet high are covering the entire field, it is declared, and efforts to suppress the blaze are said to be considered hopeless.

It also is feared that there will be some loss of life, as the fire spread so quickly from lot Number 162, where it started, and other wells in the vicinity exploded.

The Amatlan field is one of the richest in the state of Vera Cruz.

Amatlan, in the state of Vera Cruz, is in the west central part of that state, about 55 miles southeast of the city of Vera Cruz.

Tent Meetings Well Attended

People from Portsmouth, New Boston, Wheelersburg, Waits Station and from the surrounding territory, are attending the splendid services, which are being held in the big tent behind the Baptist church in Sciotoville. The music, under the direction of Christer Jones, is worth coming many miles to hear. Brother Charlie Neighbour will have his cornet tonight, which will add largely to this feature. The Evangelist spoke to an audience of about 700 people last night, on the raising of Lazarus. The message was a masterly one, deeply convincing and inspiring, and gripped the attention of the audience throughout the discourse. You people who are failing to attend upon these services are missing the greatest messages you have been privileged to hear for decades in this vicinity. You are now having the privilege of seeing the sharp contrast between the "old time gospel" and this modern infidelity, called higher criticism. The real truths of God's blessed word are being preached here. If you are in doubt come and hear. This evening at 7:30 the subject will be "The Man With His Head On Backwards." All men of the community who are interested in this campaign are asked to meet at the tent at 6:30 old time tonight. All of you who have some chairs in your home you can lend during the meeting bring them tonight.

Tennis in Ancient Days.

Henry VII was a special devotee of tennis, and had a court built for himself at Windsor, whilst Henry VIII it was who built the famous court at Hampton court, where it may be seen to this day. Tennis was indeed ever a game of kings and princes. Kings of England and kings of France vied with one another in their devotion to it, whilst the courts of both countries followed the royal lead. The faithful Pepys is particularly faithful in his references to tennis.

Scientists now declare that comets carry live disease germs. They further state that it is possible for these germs to travel to the earth from other worlds on the tails of comets.

The same in all weathers

Stormy days may keep some girls at home, but not one with a fresh, smooth skin which rain and wind only make the prettier.

Such a natural complexion is beautiful at all times, by flattering evening light or noonday glare. It is the greatest charm a woman can possess and the one charm every woman can achieve.

In the mild, soothing, creamy lather of Palmolive you find an ideal cleanser. It is the facial soap which satisfies millions of exacting users. It is lotion-like in its action. It soothes while it cleanses. It is a real complexion beautifier.

Pay only 10 cents

The luxury of Palmolive is a gift of modern science which ancient beauties never enjoyed. Their luxurious oils are blended in a wonderful combination which produces the finest facial soap the world has ever known.

Science while perfecting quality, has also reduced the price, with the help of millions of users who keep the Palmolive factories working night and day.

The great demand also allows economy in the purchase of the costly ingredients in vast volume. Result, the practical 10-cent price which puts Palmolive within the reach of all.

You can afford to use Palmolive for every toilet purpose. Enjoy the luxury of bathing with it. Use it on the wash stand to keep your hands smooth. Palmolive is a luxury offered at a utility price.

How to beautify your skin

Women who think that bleaches, lotions and mysterious applications will give them a beautiful complexion are sadly in the wrong. These are more apt to increase bad conditions.

They clog the tiny pores and keep the minute cells from doing their important work. And it is the resulting sluggishness, their dangerous inactivity, which makes skins dull and sallow and produce blackheads and ugly blemishes.

Wake your skin up, put the cells and glands to work and revive the sluggish circulation. Wash cold creams, cosmetics and dirt away with simple soap and water and give nature a chance to do its work.

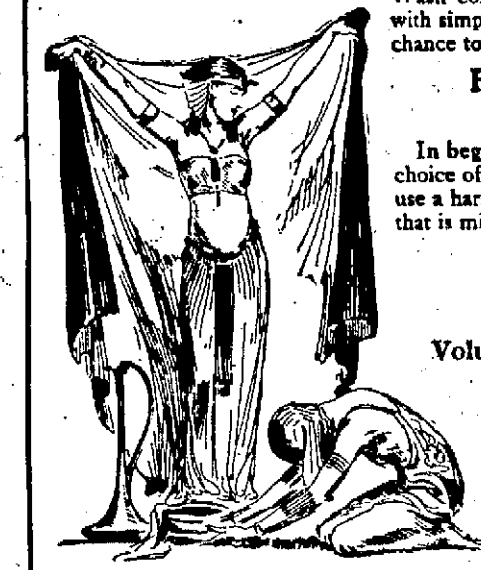

Be careful what soap you choose

In beginning this cosmetic cleansing the choice of soap is most important. You mustn't use a harsh soap, drying and irritating, but one that is mild and balmy.

Made from Cleopatra's famous oils

Palmolive is blended from palm and olive oils, the beautifiers discovered in ancient Egypt. They were the basis of Cleopatra's elaborate toilet and the foundation of her lifelong beauty.

Whatever the embellishments of her elaborate toilet, however much she called upon cosmetics to increase her beauty, thorough cleansing was the ceremony never neglected, as the ruins of her sumptuous bath are mute testimony.

HOTEL MEN SAY IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO REDUCE RATES AT THIS TIME

Edward V. Leach, manager of the Washington hotel, has returned from Chicago, where he attended the annual meeting of the American Hotel Association, which extended over a week in the windy city. Mr. Leach was accompanied by his wife and they enjoyed their stay immensely.

Mr. Leach stated that during the meeting of the association, telegrams were received from hundreds of manufacturers throughout the country, requesting that rates be lowered. The burden of the telegrams was to the effect that hotel rates, plus the high rate of travel, had made it necessary for the manufacturers to reduce their traveling forces to the minimum.

Mr. Leach stated that he will be sent back to the telegrams and it will be sent broadcast within a few days. The reply will contain the information, according to Mr. Leach that it will be impossible to reduce the rates at this time, due to the fact that hotel men have been handicapped by the elimination of the saloon, which cuts off a big source of revenue; and the further fact that while food, fuel and hotel furnishings soared almost 200 per cent that hotels only raised their prices approximately 60 per cent. Living expenses, so far as hotel's are concerned, has not been reduced 30 percent and this has been offset by the salary raises given hotel men and there was no disposition to reduce salaries at this time.

Mr. Leach stated that the hotel men of the country were very much concerned over the saloon and restaurant problem. Practically all the big hotels are literally surrounded by eating houses, and a big percentage of hotel patrons eat at these places. This is a problem that will have to be successfully combated, and may be met by charging patrons who are assigned rooms for meal slips to use at their option. This is being done in the hotels of Europe and is meeting with favor.

The real banquet of the association meeting was held at Chicago's finest hotel, the Drake, which was recently completed at a cost of $5,000,000. It contains 800 rooms, which means it cost $10,000 per room. It has its own bathing beach, motion picture theater, dance pavilion, etc. While in Chicago Mr. Leach saw a game between the New York Yankees and the White Sox and enjoyed that thrill that comes once in a life time when he witnessed "Babe" Ruth slam out a home run. The noted singer also drove out a fly that permitted a runner to go from first to third and required two relays to get it to the infield. The outfielders, said Mr. Leach, all stand with their backs to the fence when Ruth comes to bat and if it were permitted they would roost on top of the fence.

EVANS SENT TO JUVENILE COURT

Ernest Evans, 16 years old, Union street youth, taken into custody for alleged attempted rape upon the nine year old daughter of William Kluney, was sent to juvenile court Tuesday.

The complaint, which was filed by the child's father, alleges the assault was committed Sunday. The case will be heard by Judge Gilliland Friday.

Peroxide Good Remedy.
For a painful ulcerated tooth use peroxide, either full strength or diluted one-half with warm (not hot) water. Nothing will relieve more quickly and it will cleanse the mouth and sweeten the breath. It is used for sore throat as well as for sores of all kinds, as it is antiseptic and one of the safest and cheapest germicides known. If it seems to make the gums a little sensitive after using, rinse the mouth with a weak solution of baking soda.

Too Curious.
Thillie Clinger says the reason she didn't last long as a salesgirl at the jewelry counter was because when a man came in and said he wanted something nice for his baby she asked him if his baby was a boy, a girl or a chicken.—Dallas News.

Woodpecker Tenacious.
The woodpecker does a good deal of looking around and thumping on hollow stubs before he locates his work for breakfast; but after he does make up his mind, nothing on earth can drive him from his job.

Bought Right to Name Asteroid.
A certain German astronomer, having discovered a new asteroid, advertised in the newspapers that whoever first sent him a post office order for $250 might have the privilege of naming it. The offer was taken up by Baron Rothschild, who sent his check with directions that the newly discovered body should be named after one of the ladies of the baron's family.

Auditory Nerves.
The action of the ear is this. A sound is transmitted from some position, causing a disturbance in the air. This disturbance is collected by the outer ear, passed down the connecting passage, and strikes the skin of the drum, causing it to vibrate. The drum in turn communicates its vibrations to the oval window. Thence they travel to the liquid of the inner ear, and the hearing nerve gathers them up and transmits them to the brain.

Bamboo Serves All Purposes.
The first thing a farmer does in China is to plant round three sides at least of the site of his house a bamboo fence or grove, the second to cut it down gradually, and thereafter make every conceivable thing he may want, from the house itself down to his fan, opium-pipe and chop-sticks.

ALMOST CHOKED TO DEATH

From Gaithe—Read This Wellston Woman's Experience With External Home Treatment

Note: It would be illegal to publish these statements if they were not true. Mrs. Carrie Barnhouse, 421 West C. Street, Wellston, Ohio, writes in her own home paper, The Wellston Sentinel: "I feel inclined to tell you what Sorbol Quadruple has done for me. I had an inward colic for over 20 years. At times I thought I would surely choke to death. I was told it was one of those poisonous kinds, and that nothing could be done. The night before I commenced using Sorbol Quadruple I sat up in bed and fanned all night to get my breath. In three days my choking and smothering spells were all gone, and to my great surprise my appetite began to disappear. In less than two weeks I had no sign of a colic. Today it is gone and my neck is as though I never had one. Will gladly tell my experience by words or letter."
Sorbol Quadruple comes in small bottles containing enough for most cases. It will not stain or irritate. Does not interfere with regular work. Leaves the parts in a healthy, normal condition. Requires ten minutes daily.

domestic corporation regardless of the per value of its capital stock, and of every foreign corporation irrespective of the amount of capital employed in this country in the transaction of its business. Certain corporations not organized for profit are exempt from capital stock tax. The class of organizations entitled to the exemption is described in regulations 50, revised copies of which may be obtained at the following offices: Office of Collector Internal Revenue, Columbus, Ohio; Office of Deputy Collector at Portsmouth or Zanesville, Ohio.

Corporations claiming exemption are required to file returns setting forth their reasons for such claims, accompanied by evidence in support thereof. If, because of lack of complete data or other reasons than illness or absence, it is impossible to file a complete return on or before July 31, a tentative return may be filed, reporting the approximate fair value in order that an initial assessment may be made thus avoiding penalty.

The penalty for failure to file a return within the time prescribed is an added assessment of 25 per cent of the amount due, unless it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause and not to neglect.
In addition to the added assessment a fine of not more than $10,000.00 is provided for failure to make return on time. For wilful refusal to make a return, wilful evasion of the tax, wilful refusal to supply information requested by the Commissioner, or attempting in any way to evade the tax and payment when due, the penalty is a fine of not more than $10,000.00 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.
With a view to the prompt collection of the capital stock tax, and for the convenience of the taxpayer as well as the Government, the Bureau suggests that corporations submit checks with the returns for the amount of tax due. This method is appealing to corporations as it lessens the liability to penalty.

Tested Want Ads

Tested by Experience to Pull Greatest Results

Classified advertising is an important factor in serving the life and industry of Portsmouth and the territory surrounding. Its great importance cannot be over-estimated.

As time goes on and Portsmouth increases in population and industry, the need of Classified Advertising becomes greater. Years ago it was not necessary—neither was steam nor gasoline nor electricity. Their invention and use is the result of progress.

Classified Advertising has a very definite aim in its existence. It has been developed for the sole purpose of getting for its users what they want when they want it.

All classified advertising is good. But experience has shown that some ads are more result fetching than others.

The outgrowth of this experience has been the development of "THE TESTED WANT AD"—the classified ad that is written to conform with certain rules found to be effective in previous cases.

Now, just as it takes a carpenter to build a house or a doctor to treat a case of sickness, so also a specialist is required to write Tested Want Ads. For this reason we have established our Want Ad Service Department.

The kind of ads gotten up by this department are those that will be best able to get you what you want. They are the kind of ads that have brought results before. They will do it again—for you.

A Tested Want Ad will sell your farm—your household goods—your automobile. A Tested Want Ad will get you a good position. A Tested Want Ad will get you the help you are looking for.

Remember that Classified Advertising is a service broad enough to get you what you want. A Tested Want Ad will do it most effectively.

Chicago Players
Double Crossed

Attell in talking to Rothstein said Rothstein had a private wire from New York to Cincinnati and some one said that Pittsburgh gamblers were in on the deal. I don't know who said that. Attell, Bennett and Maharg were there. Some one said the Pittsburgh gamblers had a hard time getting money down.

"Attell then took ten thousand dollars from under the mattress and gave it to me."

But $10,000 in his shirt, says Burns.

"I offered it to Maharg. He wouldn't take it. I put it in my shirt and took it up to the player's room. I passed 'Kid' Green on the way."

"Maharg and McMullin were in the hotel room," Attell said. "I don't recall the others."

Later Cicotte and Gandil came in and I gave the ten thousand dollars to Gandil.

"There were two other players there."

In question and answer form the testimony was as follows:

Q. "What did the players say?"

A. "Gandil said they had been double-crossed. Attell said they must win the third game—the next day—so as to improve the odds, which then were three to two in favor of Chicago. Attell said the odds must be better."

Q. "What did the players say?"

A. "Gandil said they had not won for a regular pitcher and they would not win for a 'busher'."

Q. "Did they know who was going to pitch the third game?"

A. "Yes, Dick Kerr. I then went to the train to go to Chicago."

"Before going to Chicago, let's go back to New York. Tell the jury the conversation you had with Cicotte in New York."

The defense objected, citing Judge Friend's ruling yesterday, when this conversation was barred. Judge Friend again barred the conversation for the time being, reserving the right to reverse his ruling, when the state privately informed him that the alleged conspiracy had its inception at this meeting between Cicotte and Burns.

"Cicotte and Burns met in the writing room of the Anson's Hotel, discussed the throwing of the series and met there again the next day with Maharg and Gandil and decided to get the gamblers to back the deal," Mr. Gorman said in arguing the point.

Burns claims he was also double-crossed.

Sweden. Kiskadee, the White Sox shortstop, agreed to "go through" with the game throwing. Burns testified. Repeated attempts to persuade players to throw the rest of the games failed and Burns then gave up his efforts to again bribe the players, he said.

Burns related further details of meetings in Cincinnati hotels at which he said the gamblers and players discussed throwing the games.

Attell and Bennett, identified yesterday as David Zeller, of Des Moines, Iowa, a defendant, were the leaders of the alleged gamblers and "Chick" Gandil headed the players, according to Burns.

Burns said Attell refused to pay the twenty thousand dollars promised the players after each game. He persuaded Attell to give him ten thousand and after the second game, which was given to Gandil, he said.

A St. Louis man volunteered to put up ten thousand dollars to have the fourth and fifth games thrown, Burns said. The players turned him down. Burns said he did not know the man's name, but said Joe Gedeon, of the St. Louis Americans, who was released after the grand jury probe, was present at the time the proposition was made.

Attell then took ten thousand dollars from under the mattress and gave it to me."

But $10,000 in his shirt, says Burns.

"I offered it to Maharg. He wouldn't take it. I put it in my shirt and took it up to the player's room. I passed 'Kid' Green on the way."

Jas. M. Smith
Says It Added
Years To Life

"I eat better, sleep better, feel better and work better since taking Tania than I have in years," said James M. Smith, a well known machinist living at 526 Prospect Ave., Scranton, Penna., recently.

"At the time I got hold of Tania I was run-down all over, felt half-sick and worn out and had reached the point where it took all the nerve and will-power I had to stay on the job. Nothing tasted right and at night I would carry my dinner pail back home without having eaten anything scarce."

My arms and legs were stiff and aches and I had a heavy, sluggish feeling all over my body. My night's rest was broken up and of mornings I got up feeling worse than I did when I went to bed. In fact, I was simply 'all in' and felt unfit for anything."

"Well, I know now from my own experience what Tania will do. I had heard a lot about it and I can say that it has certainly lived up to everything I expected and more too. I feel like a new man and believe that years have been added to my life. Sleep, whir, I sleep fine and get up in the morning full of my old time pep and energy and ready for a good day's work. Tania is the one medicine I will speak up for every chance I get."

"In view of our refusal to sit at the conference table with Mr. Lloyd George and the Ulsterites," he continued, "it would seem that our objections on this point were unjustifiable, but what we desire to have made clear is that conversations such as have occurred here do not imply any recognition on our part of the Ulsterites' equality."

THE
U. S. USCO TREAD

Here is the U. S. Usco Tread, with a long-established standard of service among motorists who have an eye to value, as well as to price. While selling for less than the other tires in the U. S. Fabric line, the Usco has earned a reputation for quality and dependable economy which is not exceeded by any tire in its class.

PEOPLE used to be secretly envious of the young fellow who came tearing up the street and stopped his car with a jerk.

Now they are inclined to criticize such abuse of tires. A mark of the growing consciousness about tires—their service, their work, their value.

This same respect for a good tire is the reason why the four-square tire dealer has passed up odds and ends, "job lots," "seconds," "cut prices"—and come out squarely with the standard quality service of U. S. Tires.

He is getting a bigger, and also better, tire business than he ever had before.

He is dealing now with his own kind

ALLIES ASKED IF THEY OPPOSE GERMAN TREATY

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright, 1921, by Times Pub. Co.)
WASHINGTON, July 19.—The United States government has entered into informal discussions with Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan to determine whether they as members of the group known as the "principal allied and associated powers" have any objection to the making of a separate treaty between the United States and Germany.

Germany which shall include in its text the same rights and privileges granted the United States in the Versailles treaty.

The step which has been in process for several days is the alternative to the submission of the Versailles pact with reservations, and if the allied powers interpose no objections and no legal complications arise the "irreconcilables" in the American Senate will have their way to the extent that the original Versailles pact will not be submitted to them again with the proviso that America will have the satisfaction of knowing that approximately eighty per cent of the Versailles pact will be included in the new treaty to be negotiated with Germany.

the war has by no means been dissolved. On the other hand, the answer made here is that Germany cannot possibly derive any impression of division in the allied ranks because she will be asked to sign a treaty containing clauses of reparations as those almost identical with those in the Versailles pact.

Germany's obligation to pay for the war will be just as much stressed in the new German-American treaty as in the Versailles convention.

There is in reality little difference in substance between the submission of the Versailles pact with reservations and the alternative now being worked out with the allies covering a separate treaty with Germany. But there is a difference in form and it is sufficient to cool the wrath of the "irreconcilables" and make easier the ratification of the treaty. President Harding and his cabinet have practically every day come face to face with problems which cannot be solved because America's economic relationship with Europe is unsettled. It is with the idea of a speedy settlement of all important questions pending with Europe that the separate treaty plan has been more or less determined upon. Its final approval by the administration, will of course, depend upon the replies of the allies and the arguments they make as to the validity of America's rights when granted under a separate treaty.

It does raise some interesting legal points for which America will in consequence be withdrawing from the legal partnership created by the joint signatures on the Versailles treaty she will be asking the partners to agree to a cessation of the same rights through another instrumentality—a separate treaty.

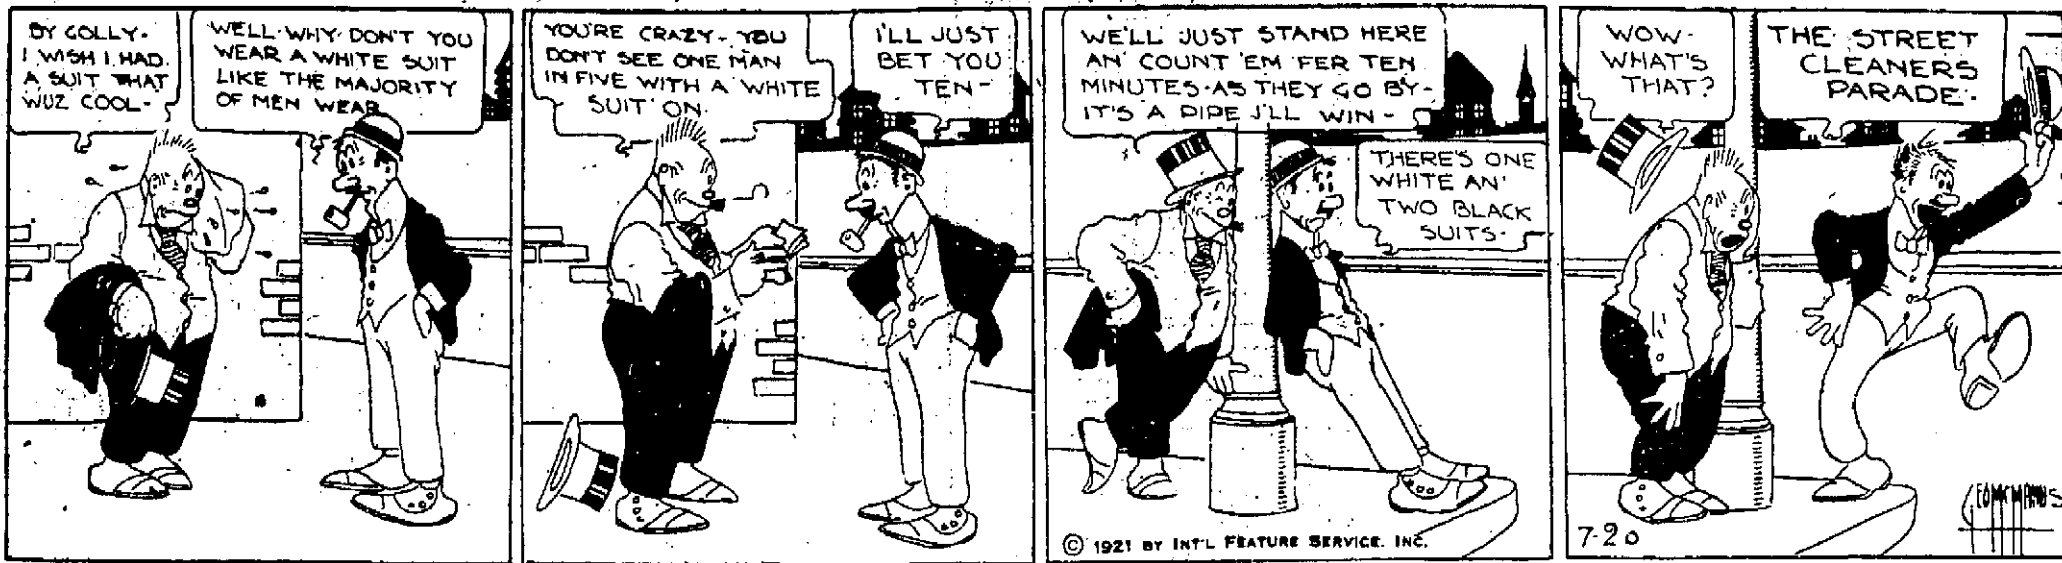

Just now the allies have more to gain than lose by agreeing to America's wishes. The funding of the allied debt over a period of years means more to the allies than technical questions and abstract rights. The consent of the allies is confidently expected. Diplomatic notes exchanged between the United States and the allied powers will be sufficient to safeguard America's rights and when once those notes have been received the United States government will feel free to lay the text of the new treaty before the German government. Of course Germany might balk and try to reopen the economic clauses of the treaty for general discussion but Germany would soon be told that the matters are not open for parley and debate but are closed. Germany too has more to gain than to lose by accepting the American viewpoint so everybody in the government feels certain that when the allied consent has been obtained the rest will be smooth sailing.

The Harding foreign policy is slowly being evolved. Step number one

COUNTRY CLUB IS ASSURED; NEW COMPANY WILL BE INCORPORATED FOR $100,000; COMMITTEE AT WORK

The formation of a Country Club for Portsmouth, one that will rank with the best in the state, assumed concrete form Tuesday night when steps were taken to incorporate the club for $100,000. Of this amount the handsome sum of $31,000 has already been subscribed.

The committee named to look after the incorporation includes L. P. Haldeman, chairman, D. W. Canby, H. E. Miller, Ed T. Reed and John F. Wilhelm.

The meeting held last night in the Elks Club was full of enthusiasm, and it can be stated today that the long talked of country club is soon to become a gratifying reality. No site has been definitely selected, but several desirable ones are being tentatively considered.

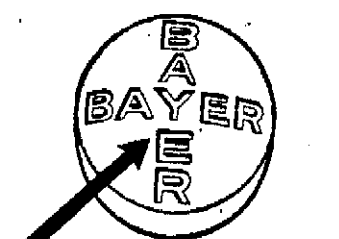

The fact that almost one-third of our capital stock has already been subscribed is positive proof that the club is in earnest this time and we are going ahead with our plans to give the city a modern country club, one that will meet our requirements for years to come," Mr. Haldeman said today.

"Our plan of financing it is sure to be a success and is so simple that it is impossible for the club to be anything else but an unqualified success." The club will start out with a membership of 250 and within a year after being placed in operation the promoters say they will have 500. With the membership at this mark, the club will be put on a paying basis, one that will insure the ultimate success of the project. The promoters are among the city's best known and most influential citizens and the club cannot help but be a success.

Of course the principal feature will be an 18 hole golf course, one that is to be made one of the finest in the state. Later on an adequate club house

ASPIRIN

Beware! Unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or on tablets you are not getting genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for twenty-one years and proved safe by millions. Take Aspirin only as told in the Bayer package for Colds, Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Earache, Toothache, Lumbago, and for Pain. Handy tin boxes of twelve Bayer Tablets of Aspirin cost few cents. Druggists also sell large packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monacoeleidester of Salicylicacid.

with all its appliances will be built and then the Country Club will be completed. There will be ample ground to provide for a series of tennis courts, horseshoe courts and various other branches of outdoor sports will be taken care of.

It was stated today that at the next meeting the plans for financing the project will be ready for publication and then it can be seen just how easy it will be to provide the city with a wide-awake, progressive and picturesque Country Club.

COURT HOUSE

Quartet Arrested

On warrants issued from Municipal court Joseph Holsinger, 24, Richard Keel, 23, John Odle, 18 and Dallas Odle, 16, were arrested at their homes at Turkey Creek at an early hour Wednesday morning and brought to the county jail by Sheriff E. E. Ricker and Deputies B. F. Bennett and Al Richards.

The young men are accused of disturbing a religious meeting at a church in the Turkey Creek vicinity recently. Two others said to have participated in the alleged disturbance have not been apprehended.

Gets Stiff Sentence

John Portis, 25, was convicted of failing to support his two minor children at a hearing in probate court Wednesday and Judge Gilliland sentenced him to jail for ninety days in addition to tucking on a fine of $50 and costs.

The wife, Mattie Portis, who lives at 223 Market street, told the court that the defendant spent his time in idleness while she was compelled to work in a shoe factory to support her children. This was Portis' second appearance before Judge Gilliland for the same offense and he was severely scored by the court.

Back To Old Home

Walter Carter, the negro who was adjudged insane after his arrest for attempting to rob the Goodpastor grocery a few days ago, was, Tuesday, turned over to his father, who took his son back to his old home in Georgia. The father came to this city upon being notified of his son's plight.

Will Adjudged

In passing on the application of Minnie Nistius, executrix, to construe the will of Michael Nistius, deceased, late Buena Vista citizen, who died at his home in that village a few months ago, Judge Thomas has made a finding that the decedent's gold watch belongs to his son, Joseph Nistius, and that the residue of the estate belongs, under the terms of the will, to the widow, Anna Marie Nistius, according to an entry filed Wednesday in the office of the clerk of courts. The court further found that the bequest of $200 to Peter Nistius is void for uncertainty and that the provision contained in Item Three of the will is void for uncertainty and ambiguity and for the further reason that the entire estate has been disposed of under Item Two.

The executrix has been ordered to proceed to administer the estate pursuant to and in conformity to law and the findings set out by the court.

Inventory Filed

An inventory of the appraisement of the estate of John Brandel, deceased, filed in probate court Tuesday shows property scheduled amounting to a total of $6308.50 of which $5000 is represented by realty and the balance in cash.

Gets Usual Dose

Charles Wells, Ohio Furnace man, was convicted of a charge of unlawfully possessing intoxicating liquor at his hearing before Judge McManes, Tuesday, and the court imposed the usual fine of $1000 and costs. Having no funds the defendant was committed to the county jail.

Contract Awarded

County Commissioners in session at the Court House Tuesday awarded the contract for burial of pauper dead to the E. C. Daehler company for the ensuing year on his low bid of $18 for adult; $15 for children and $10 for infants. The contract specifies that the casket must be cloth-covered with four handles and plate.

The board also heard claims for compensation in connection with the change in location of a road in Union and Brush Creek townships, petitioned for by A. L. Root and others. The only claim presented was one for $500 made by Reilly Bros.

The claim of $50 made by Jacob Hickman as damages for a change in the road in Jefferson township petitioned for by William Wolfe and others, was allowed and ordered paid.

Cut Down Gas Bills. Comparatively few people realize that the gas bills may be cut down materially by exercising care in lighting the gas. Hold a lighted match over the burner, then very slowly turn on the gas. If the gas is turned on full force before the match is applied, a slight explosion occurs which affects the meter and sends it forward rapidly.

MR. GANNON TO MANAGE LOCAL STORE

The Ironmonger of local interest Wednesday morning said: John H. Gannon, who for some time has been connected with the Newark Shoe Stores Company of this city, leaves today for Portsmouth where he will assume control of the fine new store of the company just opened in that city. Mr. Gannon is a graduate of the Ironmonger's school, a practical shoe salesman and in every way qualified for the duties of store management. His acceptance of the position offered by the Newark Co., will necessitate his withdrawal from the mayor's race at Coal Grove, which his many friends in that village will regret to learn as they deemed his chances excellent.

A Heart to Heart Talk Concerning MOTHERHOOD and The Coming Baby

SURELY there is no word in all the languages of the world—since time began—that conveys the same fullness of love, the same devotion, the same self-denial as motherhood. It is God's supreme gift to womankind. It is woman's sacrifice on the Altar of Love—her gift to eternity.

How necessary it is then, that we should extend to the mother-to-be the helping hand of science that her labor of love may be lightened. It is the least that man can do to help repay the woman, who is, has been, or will be a mother.

Scientists tell us that the conditions of pending motherhood, existing as they do, over a protracted period of months, create almost a new state of being for a woman.

As a result, new nerves, those heretofore restful and quiescent, spring into activity, they cry out, they tingle, they burn in their unrest.

Unpacified Nerves May Cause the Mother-To-Be Untold Suffering At Maternity

Likewise, the muscles and ligaments that surround and support the organs of reproduction are also interwoven with a network of nerves, and they, too, are being called on for tests of physical endurance, to which they have hitherto been wholly unaccustomed.

These nerves must be pacified and comforted; must be put in condition for the crisis that is pending.

If these nerves are not soothed and quieted, they may set up aggravated nerve tension, increasing in severity from month to month, sometimes even culminating in a nervous paralysis of the back and limbs. This leaves the mother-to-be in a condition where she is unable, fully, to meet the test when the climax of maternity arrives.

Three Generations of Mothers Have Used Mother's Friend

Of all things which may be done, there is none that so much brings happy, hopeful and confident anticipation as the use of Mother's Friend, which thousands of mothers, thru three generations, have come to rely on.

Mother's Friend is used externally as a massage; and its purpose, thru daily use, is to gradually, gently and effectively relax the muscles and nerves involved in the function of child-bearing; to make the skin soft, pliable and elastic so that it may expand easily and naturally as the abdominal parts enlarge—thereby relieving the tension and strain on these muscles and nerves of the otherwise severe distension before delivery.

Many doctors and nurses recommend Mother's Friend. It contains no narcotics, or habit-forming drugs and is perfectly harmless. All drug stores carry Mother's Friend.

WARNING: Avoid using plain oils, greases and substitutes—they act only on the skin and may cause harm without doing good.

No Cause for Worry.
A New Jersey pastor announced from the pulpit: "God hasn't any use for a bachelor and neither have I." The bachelors will not be likely to worry over the first part of the assertion until they hear on better authority, and the latter probably will never cause them any concern.—Washington Herald.

Investigating the Heavens.
Incomputable in value as are the discoveries that have been made in terrestrial affairs by means of the spectroscopic, its most marvelous accomplishment has been the story it has told of the composition and movement of our sun, our fellow planets, and many of the great suns of the celestial canopy, star clusters, star multiples, nebulae and even elusive comets, which come from none knows where, and go to none knows where.

Daily Thought.
A man's own conscience is his sole tribunal and he should care no more for that phantom "opinion" than he should fear meeting a ghost if he crosses the churchyard at dark.—Lyt ton.

Trapping the Elusive Mouse.
Every housewife has had the experience of finding a carefully prepared mouse trap denuded of its bait, but unsprung and minus its victim. This can be avoided and Mr. Mouse's capture assured by using for bait chest crumbs instead of a large lump. To get the crumbs the mouse must press down and thus set off the spring. A lump, on the other hand, is easily stolen.

Wie Hallucination.
"When I take too much quinine for my malaria, as I occasionally do," confessed the Old Coder, "it affects my head and makes me think very foolish things. I remember once of getting so that I heard queer noises in my head, and for nearly a whole day fancied I was an 'hon.' and was being solicited by my many friends to run for the legislature."—Kansas City Star.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, July 20.—The stock market moved within narrow limits at the dull opening of today's session. Changes among leaders were limited to fractions. Mexican Petroleum was the only exception, reacting at point and the rallying moderately. Other Mexican oils were irregular in publication figures which indicated that the export tax imposed by the Mexican government in some instances equalled or exceeded the oil price. Steels, equipments and rails were firm. Exchange on London reacted slightly from yesterday's rally.

Mexican Petroleum rallied two points from its first reversal, but gave way to further pressure. European and low priced domestic oils were firm. Moderate buying of General Electric, American Car and Baldwin Locomotive strengthened the equipments. Steels were flat within fractional limits. Northern Pacific and Northern were strongest of the rails. New York Central and some of the others also improving. American Sugar was the only heavy specialty, chemicals, textiles, tobacco and leather showing firmness. Call money opened at 6 per cent.

Trading in stocks today was broader and a little more active, but early gains gave way to renewed bearish pressure. Sales approximated 350,000 shares.

The closing was heavy.

Chicago Grain And Provisions

CHICAGO

CHICAGO, July 20.—Possibilities of railroad embargo against grain shipments to Chicago had a bearish influence on the wheat market today. It was estimated that two thousand car loads of wheat were on trucks here. Cool, dry weather in the spring crop belt tended also to ease prices. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1-4 cent decline to 3-4 cent advance, with September 1.28 to 1.29 1-4 and December 1.32 to 1.33 3-4, were followed by material setbacks all around.

Corn was easier with wheat. After opening 3/4c to 1/4c lower, including September at 62 1/2 to 63 1/2, the market rallied a little and then sagged lower than before.

The close was weak, 3/4c to 1 1/4c @ 1 1/4c net lower with September 61 1/2 @ 62 1/4 to 63 1/4.

Oats were relatively firm owing to large export sales at the seaboard. Prices started 3/4c to 1/2c higher. September 42 1/2 to 43 1/2, but later showed slight losses.

The effect however, was only transient. Prices closed heavy 1 1/2c to 3/4c net lower, with September 1.25 1/2 to 1.26 and December 1.29 1/2 to 1.30 1/2.

Lower quotations on hogs acted as a weight on provisions.

THEATRE WILL OFFER "Whats a Wife Worth?"

A LEAF FROM a WOMAN'S Soul
Positively one of the best pictures we have ever shown. Our best recommendation is to ask someone who saw it.

For our many patrons who were unable to see this great picture the last two nights, we have arranged with the producers to show it again tonight. Be sure you see it tonight.

Special Musical Settings and Other Features

Shows at 6:30 and 8:30 P. M.

EXHIBIT TONIGHT AND TOMORROW

Catherine Calvert, the star of "The Heart of Maryland," does a remarkable piece of acting at the climax of the production, when she makes a last appeal to save the life of her sweetheart, Felix Krebs, as Colonel Thorpe, is a villain worthy of the name and draws from the star all the force and realism in her nature. The result is a scene never excelled and rarely duplicated on the screen.

This is one of the season's biggest productions. Every man, woman and child should see it.

Program

A—Overture, Eastland Orchestra—Wm. A. Spletzer, Conductor.
B—Harold Lloyd in "Get Out and Get Under."
C—A Kaufman Masterpiece with music.
D—Harry Carey in "The Wallop."

"The Wallop," Eugene Manlove Rhodes' most dramatic story of the old West, will be the principal attraction at the Eastland theatre tomorrow for one day only with the popular Harry Carey in the starring role. The popular western story has done full justice to the story by his interpretation of the big dramatic moments. The production will be regarded by those who witness it as one of the star's best screen efforts.

The story shows a man who returns to the western country after making his strike in the gold fields. He finds that the girl he loves has given her heart to a younger man. Suppressing his own desires, he helps his rival in an exciting and bloody political campaign.

With spontaneous bits of humor, amazingly thrilling drama and heart interest predominating, Jack Ford directed the story at Universal City from the adaptation of George C. Hull.

Mignonette Golden, the pretty little girl who has been seen in the leading feminine role in other recent Carey successes, has the supporting role. The famous Harry Carey Flying Squadron of cowpunchers, also will be seen in action.

What's a Wife Worth?

Hold Over by Popular Demand—Owing to the enormous crowds and the Many People Who Were Unable to Get In—The Eastland Theatre will Offer for One More Night—Tonight and Tomorrow Only—The Screen's Most Human Picture, "What's a Wife Worth?" PROGRAM

A—The Eastland Weekly News.
B—A New Gaiety Comedy.
C—Orchestra Prelude—Melody in F by Rubenstein—Eastland Orchestra.
D—Wm. Christy Cabanne offers "What's a Wife Worth?"

William Christy Cabanne's new super-spectacular production, "What's a Wife Worth?" released by Robertson-Cole, opened at the Eastland theatre Monday night and met with the unqualified approval of a large and enthusiastic audience. Mr. Cabanne established his reputation as an author and master director in his production, "The Sleds," but his new picture, "What's a Wife Worth?" is a masterpiece of acting and direction. Mr. Cabanne has the knack of gathering together a cast that is a little better than the other fellows. While there is no outstanding star in "What's a Wife Worth?" it can be truthfully said that each and every member of the cast is a star. At least they are so clever and artistic in their several roles that it might readily be imagined that the story was written for them.

"What's a Wife Worth?" is a comedy-drama of the highest type. While it sends the audience away with something to think about it can not be called a sermon or a preaching. It discusses a problem of everyday life and while the title puts the question, the story of the picture answers it.

Trapping the Elusive Mouse.

A lump, on the other hand, is easily stolen.

FAILED TO UNSAID JUDGE

COLUMBUS, O., July 20.—The supreme court today refused to allow an order to issue requiring Common Pleas Judge Homer G. Powell, of Cleveland, to appear and show cause why he should be allowed to hear the latest suit in the McGinnis litigation in Cleveland.

Just Punishment.
The cunning of the infantile mind was illustrated the other day when a 5-year-old who had been informed that when he was a bad boy a little bird told his father, and if the little bird told not happen to be around, by the flies around the house, which acted as the bird's agent, triumphantly brought two dead flies to his mother. "I tilled two agents!" he cried with much pride. "Now they dasset toll dadday on me!" —New York Evening Post.

The Reason.
Little Joe was at grandmother's house for dinner. Although fried chicken and many other mighty good things were on the table, Joe did not care to eat much. Then grandmother began to coax him. One thing after another she brought to his notice. Finally she said: "Here's my home made sugar cookies. Aren't you going to try some of them, dear?" Little Joe attempted a smile. "That's what is the matter," he explained. "I tried too many of them before dinner, grandmother." —Indianapolis News.

A Great Heap of Small Sticks.
Grammar being but an introduction to the understanding of authors, if it be made too long or exquisite to the learner, it in a manner mortifies the tongue. And by the time he cometh to the most sweet and pleasant reading of old authors, the mark of fervent desire of learning is extinct with the burden of grammar like as a little fire is soon quenched with a great heap of small sticks; so that it can never come to the principal log where it should long burn in a great pleasant fire.—Sir Thomas Elyot, "The Gouernour" (1531).

THE KID'S CLEVER

BY C. A. VOIGHT

BILL BURNS TO TELL HIS STORY

CHICAGO, July 20.—Bill Burns, admitted accomplice of former White Sox players and alleged gamblers on trial here charged with entering in a conspiracy to throw the 1919 world series to Cincinnati, resumed the witness stand today to continue his story of the reported sellout which was interrupted yesterday when court adjourned.

Burns, who was indicted but was promised immunity by the state if he turned state's evidence, was expected to be on the stand all day and it may be Thursday noon before the defense has finished its cross-examination. His direct testimony was completed late today.

Relied upon by the state as a pinch hitter, Burns yesterday seemed to measure up to the prosecution's expectations. When court adjourned, he had recited a story of numerous meetings between the players and alleged gamblers involved, testified that Eddie Cicotte said he would throw the first game if he had to throw the ball over the fence, asserted Claude Williams, White Sox southpaw, agreed to throw the second game of the series and named Arnold Rothstein, of New York, Alie Altell, former pugilist, David Zelzer, of Des Moines, a defendant, Billy Maharg, of Philadelphia, and himself as among the organizers of the alleged conspiracy.

Burns' testimony, however, was broken repeatedly by arguments and objections of the defense attorneys, who succeeded in having much of his testimony barred. His testimony today, relating to events during the actual games of the series, was expected to cause many clashes between the opposing array of counsel.

GLEASON AND EDDIE COLLINS MAKING REORGANIZED WHITE SOX TOUGH FOE

Kid Gleason, left, and Collins. Last spring the consensus of opinion was that the devastated but cleansed White Sox would be lucky to escape last place. But they have kept far from that berth so far. With youngsters in the infield and outfield and only two good catchers they have given the league leaders a battle. The bulk of credit for their winning goes to Kid Gleason for his keen management, and Eddie Collins, who has steadied the team on the field and helped Gleason put fighting spirit into the new outfit.

THE LIKE NEVER KNOWN

So far, in the matter of heat there has been no other year of record to compare with 1921; nor in dryness either. Every month so far has been abnormal in the upward range of temperature. January and February were unusually mild, March was unprecedented in warmth, April was cold in spots, but its average temperature was not excessive one way or the other. May was anything but mild and June developed such torridity, that as one official weather man puts it, July dawned with one thousand degrees of heat already. July up to the middle was a veritable scorcher—it and June produced the longest era of heat and drought ever combined, intensified by the fact that little moisture was precipitated in May.

But this condition was not confined to America. It prevailed with equal character all over Europe. If it showed less torridity across the waters, the dry spell was more intense. England is notorious for its damp climate, but so acute was the drought and so long protracted that the river Thames became little more than a trickle stream and London was forced to go on water rations. In Ireland, with a much similar climate, the famous river Shannon almost ceased to flow, at least in many parts it became easily fordable.

Yes, such a spell was never known, the almanacs lost that traditional esteem with the people and the weather man became simply impossible—he couldn't tell the public what it wanted, in fact, he couldn't tell it anything for it was driven intensely upon him that all signs fall in dry weather.

NOW JUST CONSIDER THIS

THE new tariff bill is now before the house of congress. Claim is made that it is a measure to protect American business and industry.

Assuming that claim is made in good faith then the farmers and the Republican party do not believe agriculture is a business, nor that the farmer works.

That must be because the bill as reported and submitted by the Republican majority of the committee, places no duty, no protection upon hides. This product of the vast reaches of Australia and the unlimited plains of Argentina were to be permitted to come into this country absolutely free and in competition with the American product, grown of the business farming and the work of farmers.

As if that were not enough the mockery of this whole protection was exposed out of the mouths of Republicans, when an amendment to the bill was offered, placing a duty on hides. The Republican member, specially charged with the defense of this particular section, declared a duty on hides would not give the farmer one cent more therefor, but even a 15 percent tax would cost the people of America eighty-one million dollars.

Can greater absurdity than that be patched out of the vagaries of partisanship? A tax on shoes will protect the manufacturer, give more wages to industry and cost the consumer less—a triple sort of a miracle—but a tax on hides, doesn't protect the business of stock raising, doesn't give the producer of the hide more and yet it costs the consumer millions.

Can you get that?

A JOKE WITH A POINT

HAVE you heard the latest political quip? It is a good one. A friend approaches you and tells you a wild conflagration has broken out in one of Pittsburgh's biggest mills and threatens to sweep all before it. Naturally, you are somewhat interested and then inquire if the department is unable to cope with it. Yes, it is, comes the reply, but the Pittsburgh people are hopeful, they are going to send for Harding. You look a bit surprised, and then comes the finish: "You know he put out the fires in all the other mills."

Talk about high finance in Wall street, will you? Rejoice and be exceedingly glad that Wall street doesn't know where Beaver is.

The underground tip is that Harding means to turn the disarmament conference into an associations of nations, build on the old Hague peace tribunal plan that went to pot, without even so much as a test.

Somewhat we would think more of that conference between Lloyd George and Eamonn DeValera if we did not read that they took tea together at the premier's house. But pondering on it and knowing one of the parties to the confab is a Welshman and the other an Irishman, we guess it is a different sort of a tea from what Perley Baker and Wayne Wheeler have decreed we can serve in this arid nation.

This is some country. Here while we are counting and jubiling over every drop of rain that falls Nebraskans are fleeing before raging floods.

Not a word is heard about the August primaries, which is well. The less time is wasted in mere politics all the better.

It will come about, if you wait long enough. New Boston is about to start work of paving Gallia street out to the Terminals. This highway was torn up about eight years ago and has been suffered to remain in an impassable condition ever since. There was never reason for altering the grade of the road in the first instance.

Amount of Salt in the Sea.
Ocean water contains an average of 3.77 per cent of salt. If all the saline matter of the sea was put to gether it would make a block of salt measuring 4,500,000 cubic miles. It spread out it would cover the United States to a depth of one mile and a half.

The "Sensible" Marriage.
The most sensible women always make the most foolish marriages. They are unused to feeling anything, and so the first little "come hither" look in any man's eye completely bows them over.—From "Women and Children," by Hugh de Selincourt.

Problem Of Future Navies

By Frederic J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 20.—If the great sea powers of the world should agree to cease authorizing huge sums of money for building battleships, America would remain in second place with Great Britain first and Japan a rather poor third. These positions would result from completion of the construction of ships already contracted for or authorized.

The present building programs of the nations will not be completed until about 1925. British losses during the war would put the United States very close to Great Britain in the matter of tonnage of ships of battle, the difference being only about 50,000 tons. The ranking of the first three nations in ship tonnage when the present programs are completed would be Great Britain, 1,700,000; United States, 1,600,000; Japan, 850,000.

These tonnage figures include only first line ships—super-dreadnaughts, battle cruisers, scout cruisers, destroyers, submarines, and a few special types of ships. The figures do not include second line battleships, ships whose age or lower caliber armament has rendered them virtually useless as modern sea fighting machines.

The development of the dreadnaught class made all earlier vessels virtually useless. It was easy to demonstrate that one of these vessels, with greater speed and much longer range guns, could stand off and destroy a whole fleet of the type of fighting ship which preceded it.

Any comparison of national sea power must of course be relative. The introduction of the seaplane as a fighting unit has put a new light on the whole situation, but many naval experts still are insistent that the true comparative values of the navies of the world must be computed from the tonnage of the ships of the first line, with particular stress on the big gun vessels such as battle cruisers and super-dreadnaughts.

So-called second line ships still have their uses in war. The blockading of ports on coast lines, certain kinds of patrol duty, and the raiding of commerce carrying vessels has been demonstrated to be an important part of maritime warfare, and there are many vessels in the navies of the world well-fitted for this kind of duty. This is particularly true of the British navy.

On known figures, American big gun power apparently is greater than that of the British navy. However, the number of 16-inch guns in the British navy is not known, and may be large enough to swing the balance in favor of England. Big guns include those of 12-inch bore and up.

Three Navies Epitomized
Latest figures show the strength of the British navy, already built, to be as follows:

First line battleships, 26; second line battleships, 20; first line battle cruisers, 6; second line battle cruisers, 4; first line cruisers, 2; second line cruisers, 20; first line light cruisers, 44; second line light cruisers, 24; destroyer leaders, 24; first line destroyers, 334; second line destroyers, 42; first line submarines, 71; second line submarines, 60; first line fleet submarines, 18; second line fleet submarines, 7; cruiser submarines, 1; monitor type submarines, 2; and aircraft carriers, 6.

In addition to this array of vessels, Great Britain has the following ships now building:

First line light cruisers, 5; destroyer leader, 1; first line destroyers, 11; first line fleet submarines, 18; and monitor type submarine, 1.

The total number of British ships in commission listed above is 717, with an aggregate tonnage of 2,412,146. There are 36 ships under construction, aggregating 75,890 tons.

The American navy has in commission the following vessels:

First line battleships, 16; second line battleships, 16; second line light cruisers, 10; second line light cruisers, 3; first line destroyers, 269; second line destroyers, 21; first line submarines, 43; second line submarines, 44; first line fleet submarines, 2.

Listed among the ships building and authorized for the United States Navy are the following:

First line battleships, 11; first line battle cruisers, 6; first line light cruisers, 20; first line destroyers, 38; first line submarines, 51; first line fleet submarines, 31.

Roughly, the tonnage of the 424 American naval vessels listed as in commission is 1,187,000; of the ships building, exclusive of the submarines, the tonnage is given as 804,000.

Japan's present navy is given as follows:

First line battleships, 6; second line battleships, 4; first line battle cruisers, 4; second line battle cruisers, 3; first line light cruisers, 6; second line light cruisers, 1; first line destroyers, 27; second line destroyers, 12; second line submarines, 12.

The figures given for the ships projected and building for the Japanese navy are:

First line battleships, 3 building, 4 authorized or projected; first line battle cruisers, 8, none yet laid down; first line light cruisers, 9, probably all building; first line destroyers, 15 building and 30 projected; first line submarines, 40, all building; aircraft carrier, 1, now building; second line submarines, 9 authorized.

The tonnage of the 75 Japanese vessels listed as in commission in its navy is 486,252; of the uncompleted building program, made up of 110 ships, the tonnage is given as 604,870. This figure does not include the 6 second line submarines, the tonnage of which vessels is unknown.

Comparison of the three navies by big gun power is not complete because the number of 16 inch guns in the British navy is not known. The known figures show, though, that when the present building programs are completed, Great Britain will have mounted on 31 ships a total of 44 guns of 12 inch bore; 144 guns of 13 1/2 inch bore, and 100 guns of 15 inch bore, in addition to an unknown number of 16 inch guns.

The United States will have mounted on 33 ships a total of 64 guns of 12 inch bore; 10 13 1/2 inch guns, 112 guns of 14 inch bore; 15 15 inch guns, and 152 guns of 16 inch bore.

The Japanese Navy will have mounted on 17 vessels, 8 guns of 12 inch bore; 10 13 1/2 inch guns, 50 guns of 14 inch bore; 15 15 inch guns; and 72 guns of 16 inch bore.

The totals show that the American Navy will have 328 big guns; the British Navy, exclusive of the unknown number of the largest size rifles, 288, and the Japanese Navy 160 big guns.

Change of Battle Conditions
The war demonstrated that comparisons of navies on paper cannot be taken as absolute criteria of sea power. The German surface craft, after the one big battle of Jutland, were bottled up at Heligoland for the remainder of the war, while enemy submarines were busy all the time sinking American and allied ships. If there should be another great war, it is certainly possible that development of naval aircraft may be such that submarines may be spotted easily from the air and destroyed by some kind of depth bomb. The result of a development of this kind would be to render submarine craft almost useless for any purpose.

Many government experts even now are maintaining stoutly that the most powerful and swiftest first line fighting ships will be destroyed with ease, should another great sea war be fought, by seaplanes hovering high out of reach, dropping huge bombs of terrible destructive power with sufficient precision to annihilate the greatest array of surface and sub-surface craft any nation of the world could put on the fact of the waters.

Blasphemy Decried

(By S. E. Kiser)

He is large around the waist. Age is telling on him clearly. He no longer has a taste. For the things youth values dearly. She contrives to let him think That he makes her pathway pleasant. That her spirits always sink. Sadly when he isn't present.

He sits dreaming on the beach. While she splashes in the water; She's a luscious looking peach. Young enough to be his daughter. Often when he's nodding she. Flirts a little—can you blame her? Why should other women be. Anxious always to defame her?

She has made him very glad. By pretending to adore him; What's the harm if she has had. Others on her string before him? He is fooled, and badly, too. By her counterfeit affection; Many things she dares to do. That would hardly bear inspection.

When she can she goes away. To escape his fond embraces. Finding joy in lively places. Frequently it makes her sick. He believes it makes her sick. When, in summer, she must leave him. It would be a scurvy trick— Poor old kid—to undecieve him!

Properly Worried
The doctor had instructed the butler in the art of taking and recording his master's temperature. "I hope," said he on his arrival one morning, "that your master's temperature is no higher." "I was just hoping that myself, sir," said the butler, solemnly. "He died an hour ago."

His Easy Explanation
A young scholar, taking his first lessons in natural history, had the existence of ammalcules, the minute creatures too small to be seen by the naked eye, which are to be found in liquids, explained to him. After the lesson he was asked to tell what ammalcules are.

"They are animals you can't see," he said. "Well, that may do for an answer," said the teacher. "Now, will you give me an example of ammalcules?" "The hippopotamus, the gorilla, the whale." "Stop! What makes you think these animals are ammalcules?" "Cause I never saw one of them."

Democratic Cuss
A recruit from the country stood in the company street and for the first time saw the colonel striding down that thoroughfare. He watched the officer throughout the salutes of his hundreds of official inferiors, first to the right, then to the left, till he seemed to wave his arm at every man in sight.

"Well," drawled the rookie. "Whoever that guy is, he sure is darn polite."

Two In One
"Robert," said the mother sternly to her offspring who had just broken a window with a baseball, "I'm going to give you a good whipping—not because you broke the window, but because you broke your promise to me that you would stop playing ball near the house."

"Aw, ma," whimpered the boy, "can't you do it for broken the window? Dad'll have to lick somebody for that."

Well, Then, Who Was He?
Teacher: "For whom was this country named?" Pupil: "American Vespuichus." Teacher: "Correct, and who was he?" Pupil: "He was press agent for Christopher Columbus."

Hardest of All
Kind Old Lady: "And what battles were you in?" Disabled Soldier: "I was at Belleau Wood, Chateau Thierry, the Argonne and the whole Government Compensation Campaign."

Generous Bequest
There recently died in Illinois an aged farmer, reputed to be wealthy. After his death, however, it was discovered he left nothing. And his will ran like this: "In the name of God, amen. There's only one thing I have. I leave the earth. My relatives have always wanted it. Now they can have it."

Postmaster: The Crow has resigned its job of work. Our idea of having very little to talk about is discussing a summer waist.

First Mention of Horse in Bible.
In the Bible we find the use of the horse first mentioned in the history of Jacob and Joseph. Their use seems to have been discouraged in the time of Moses. Solomon carried on a trade in horses, having them brought from Egypt. Riders in his time had no saddles, but sat upon a piece of cloth. That humble relative of the horse, the ass, was the mount of royalty and it was a mark of distinction to ride that animal, of later date an object of ridicule.

That Telephone Accent.
Frederick Wilson Truscott, professor of German at West Virginia university, says it is a raw age. He finds that daily use of modern appliances is not leaving English undefiled. Last term he gave a course involving Goethe's "Torquato Tasso," of which the class used a text with the lines numbered. Professor Truscott began his lecture on this particular work by asking his students if they had had any difficulty with it. A demure cooed from South Carolina spoke up: "I can't get line One-Three-O-Five."—New York Evening Post.

Now we are in the stage where this organization, hostile to the use of intoxicants for any purpose, seeks to effect by a federal law the beginning of the end of the use of alcoholic liquors for any purpose. It remains to be seen whether or not the people are ready for that radical advance; against the customs and appetites which have characterized all humanity from the earliest times of which we have any record.

Studying Success
There is something in every successful man's life worthy the emulation and admiration of other men who would equal his achievements. Usually there are many things in such a life to commend. There are industry, integrity and truthfulness to be seen; with no flatter, crook or liar can be really successful. Some men are spurious successes, by counterfeit methods, and display some of the common acquisitions of success, but they are not truly successful and know it.

Dream Lore.
For a man to dream of reading a newspaper indicates that he will be successful in whatever he undertakes. He will be very rich and arrive at great honors in the state. To a maid it denotes that she will marry a man who will become rich and powerful and that her children will be people of great consequence. To dream to buy or sell them denotes hard work and small profit. To dream of one printed in a foreign language denotes a letter from afar.

New-York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, July 20.—Grand street, between the Bowery and Chrystie street, swelters in the heat with stoical indifference. Grand Street is inundated with a diffusion of races from all parts of the world, sleeps naked and unashamed on the balloon bedding of the fire escapes. It awakens with a collective sigh and goes dully to lofts and sweatshops.

During the long day tired mothers droop about the doorsteps and in the dark hall-ways half clad. Children in loth cloths play listlessly in the gutters and about the push carts. Now and then an ice wagon passes and the youngsters swarm about it, placing their hands on the cool ice and transmuting their relief to feverish heads.

"The organ grinder tries vainly to infuse new life with tin-panny airs, but the children are too hot for exercise and so they sit along the curbs with their pasty little faces cupped in smuggy hands. Snarling women hurl coarse epithets from window sills to neighbors across the street, for while Grand Street is uncomplaining in the heat its temper has soared.

To add to the human misery there are, stables along the street giving forth pungent odors. Great green bottles fliee hum lazily about the decaying fruit of the push-carts. Corneal loafers in their dazzling pinhead backs stroll about the sidewalks whose fronts are scarred and interiors decaying. When the hot days come Grand Street is a picture of abject despair.

In the evening the neighborhood takes on a forced air of gaiety. The girls are home from their day's work and they parade up and down the middle of the street. The air is filled with the odor of cheap perfume and human sweat. The Oriental hawkers come at 10 o'clock with their tea-cram tickets—a penny a bracket—and Grand Street gorges.

At midnight the street retires. Heads are pillowed on the cool asphalt of the street. Traffic is barred. Modesty is forgot in the fight for sleep. Young women of doubtful reputations are resorting to strange dress to further their vicarious amours. A Broadway specialty shop is furnished smart morning costumes to the demi-monde. The White Way, when the lights begin to glow, is filled with a strange assortment of cheap young widows who are so plentifully round and powdered that they excite suspicion as to their grief. They pose as newly widowed and they find, it is said, many hearty sympathizers. In the cheap dance halls many of the "new widows" are to be seen nightly.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

By W. G. SIBLEY

The Albany Service, California, Ohio

"Where Are We At?"
Recent remarks on the floor of the U. S. Senate recall a fact that temperate leaders of the prohibition cause would have forgotten. Two-thirds of the States in the Union ratified an amendment to the Constitution. To put that amendment into effect the congress passed the Volstead law. The amendment prohibits the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors "for beverage purposes." That is all. But the prohibition advocates seek by law to extend the effect of the amendment so that it will include the prohibition of intoxicating liquors "for all purposes." That is what is behind the so-called anti-beer bill.

The people of the United States have not passed a constitutional amendment that prohibits the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors for medicinal, scientific or religious purposes. There is no opposition in congress to the proposed law to extend the prohibition to purposes not contemplated in the Eighteenth Amendment to the constitution. It is in fact a protest against achieving a purpose which the States of the Union have not endorsed or advised.

In Ohio, where the great organization which brought about the prohibition reform now in our national constitution had its first manifestations and won its first triumphs, were developed the shrewd and aloof policies and the wonderful political efficiency that destroyed the most powerful bulwark for evil since slavery. It began under the name of the Anti-Saloon League—an organization originally not seeking prohibition, but advocating the destruction of the saloon system as inimical to both public and private morals. It advanced through the phrases of county local option, under which counties by a majority vote might banish the saloon, to state prohibition, not of the use of intoxicants as a beverage, but of saloons and public drinking places.

There followed the spread of the organization to other states, its wise and remarkably efficient management, its extraordinary educational campaigns along non-partisan lines, and the slow but sure swing of public sentiment not only favorable to the banishment of all saloons, but to the prohibition of the manufacture, sale and transportation of all intoxicants for beverage purposes. No such reform—none comparable with it in influence—was ever before achieved by the methods of peace, by the deliberate and orderly expression of the convictions of a great people.

Now we are in the stage where this organization, hostile to the use of intoxicants for any purpose, seeks to effect by a federal law the beginning of the end of the use of alcoholic liquors for any purpose. It remains to be seen whether or not the people are ready for that radical advance; against the customs and appetites which have characterized all humanity from the earliest times of which we have any record.

Bear Invaded a Filver.
Even bears like motorists, as is proved by an incident which occurred in Giant forest, California. A sedan was left at the foot of Moro rock while the occupants climbed the stairway for the glorious views of the San Joaquin valley. On their return they found a black bear cub comfortably seated inside the car, which had been entered through an open window. Bruin was licking up the last of the sandwiches in the lunch and was persuaded to leave his comfortable quarters only at the point of a pole.

Their Real Reason.
"But I thought men were supposed to adore women for having just what they haven't got, just as we adore them for their physical strength and their brains." "So they say, and we say, because otherwise there would be no marriages," said Mrs. Vachek. "But it is a lie. We only love their strength for the sake of getting the better of it. They cultivate their selfishness because it gives them rest from competition, and they can sit down and plume themselves."—From "Three Loving Ladies," by Mrs. Dowd.

Presidents Who Served Two Terms.
The first president to serve two terms was Jefferson, who was followed in turn by Madison and Monroe, eight years each. They came John Quincy Adams, who had one term only. He was followed by Jackson with two full terms, ending in 1837. Then came a break of 40 years, until 1877, before President Grant retired after eight years' occupancy of the White House. Cleveland served eight years, 1885-9 and 1893-97, but his two terms were interrupted by that of Benjamin Harrison, 1889-93.
